

Denver Money Manager Proxy Voting Procedure

Denver Money Manager does not provide services for proxy voting to its clients. All proxies are sent directly to clients from the custodian. Denver Money Manager periodically reviews client options at each custodian to ensure proper coding is maintained on all client accounts. If any client receives material contrary to Denver Money Manager's proxy voting statement, they should contact our office immediately. Questions concerning proxy voting can be directed to our compliance department.